

Career Development Office Reciprocity Policy

The Quinnipiac University School of Law (“QUSL”) Career Development Office provides reasonable access to resources to students and graduates of other law schools as follows:

1. Resources in our office are available only to students and graduates of those law schools that allow QUSL students and graduates use of their facilities and will be provided on a reciprocal basis; reciprocity is not available to those students/graduates from schools which have restricted our students/graduates from using their career services. The QUSL Career Development Office reserves the right to modify its reciprocity policy if the requesting school has a more restrictive policy and to keep pace with the employment demands of the legal community.
2. Reciprocity is available throughout the year and QUSL will follow the same blackout dates as the requesting school, if any.
3. Requests for services must be made in writing by a placement or career counseling official. Requests may be emailed to: julia.cocca@quinnipiac.edu.
4. Services are available for a three-month period, commencing with the date reciprocity is granted.
5. Reciprocity may be extended by another letter from the graduate's/student's career office on a case-by-case and reciprocal basis.
6. Information pertaining to current position vacancies listed with the Career Development Office is restricted to those students and graduates of other eligible law schools that allow in-kind access to QUSL students and graduates.
7. In all cases, students and graduates from other institutions requesting reciprocal services will not be permitted to participate in the QCI program.
8. Reciprocity will not include career counseling or document review.
9. The Associate Dean of Career Development may deny further services to any individual school seen to surpass a reasonable number of requests within a given year or to anyone who abuses this policy.
